PRESIDENT TAKES DAUGHTER TO BASE BALL GAME.

Luncheons and Other Events on Today's Program—Weddings.

Miss Eleanor Wilson accompanied the President to the base ball game this afternoon and evening with her mother when the latter assisted her by appointment at 4:30 o'clock.

Miss Bones will also assist and Miss Hagner will pour tea.

Miss Margaret Wilson will return from New York today.

The Vice President and Mrs. Marshall will go to New York Saturday to remain over Sunday.

The Secretary of State and Mrs. Bryan will dine informally tonight with the President and Mrs. William R. Smith of Texas, who will have Judge and Mrs. Clements to meet them.

Today, Mrs. Bryan was honor guest at a luncheon given by Mrs. Hamilton Wright, wife of Dr. Hamilton Wright.

The engagement has just been announced of the late Count Smolnitsky, daughter of St. Petersburg and granddaughter of the late James F. Melrose of this city, and Mr. Lucien Hill of Pittsburgh and New York. The wedding will take place in Washington the end of this month, in the presence of only the immediate families and a few intimate friends.

Hundreds of persons, prominent in social life and otherwise, paid their respects yesterday to Mrs. Marshall, who kept a Wednesday in honor of the President and the five cabinet members who were receiving, Mrs. Bryan, Mrs. Daniels, Mrs. Garrison, Mrs. Lane and Miss Agnes Wilson. A starter in receiving the almost forgotten glories of cabinet members, the opportunity of making the acquaintance of the new women of the administration was seemingly neglected by very few. The vicinity of the New Willard, where Mrs. Bryan received in the red parlor, was very busy for several hours. She met her callers alone, as has been her custom so far on Wednesday.

Mrs. Garrison received at Stoneleigh Court, where the Secretary has taken a large apartment. Her drawing room were thronged throughout the afternoon. In the dining room Mrs. Robert Shaw Oliver presided at the table.

The reception out at Single Oak, on Woodley Lane road, the Daniel place for the spring and summer, took on the proportions of a fête. The sloping hillside facing the house was just back of Senator Newlands' home, afforded parking space for automobiles and carriages, and the number was so great that only skillful hand-picked vehicles could avoid the scores of vehicles. Indoors a charming hostess and her family circle called on the President and the assistants offered the hospitality always in evidence when Mrs. Daniels is at home.

A section of the Marine Band played in one of the rooms. Secretary Daniels joined the party, and the Daniel place for the spring and summer, took on the proportions of a fête.
